

MERRY XMAS

The Meaning of Christmas

Although the Christmas card custom is only a little over one hundred years old, the symbols we find on the cards each year are rich in traditions as old as Christmas itself.

ON CHRISTMAS EVE, ENGLISH MAIDENS ADORNED THEIR BEDS WITH HOLLY TO KEEP GOBLINS AWAY. AND SINCE BEES WERE SAID TO HUM CAROLS AT CHRISTMAS TIME, CHILDREN PLACED HOLLY ON THE HIVES TO WISH THE BEES A "MERRY CHRISTMAS."

MISTLETOE.... IN NORTHERN COUNTRIES, IF ENEMIES MET BENEATH MISTLETOE IN THE FOREST THEY LAID DOWN ARMS AND CALLED A DAY'S TRUCE. LATER, MISTLETOE WAS HUNG OVER DOORWAYS AT CHRISTMAS, PLEDGING THOSE WHO ENTERED TO KEEP FRIENDSHIP AND PEACE.

CANDLES.... AT CHRISTMAS, ENGLISH FARMERS USED TO LIGHT CANDLES AND PRAY GOD TO BLESS THEIR FAMILIES, THEIR FIELDS AND THEIR LIVESTOCK. AND CANDLE-MAKERS PRESENTED THEIR CUSTOMERS WITH FREE CANDLES, BY WAY OF WISHING THEM A "MERRY CHRISTMAS."

CAROLS.... ORIGINALLY A CAROL WAS A DANCE AND, LATER, A DRINKING SONG. IN ENGLAND, WANDERING MUSICIANS BEGAN THE CUSTOM OF SINGING CAROLS AT CHRISTMAS BY GOING FROM DOOR TO DOOR AND, IN SONG, WISHING FOLKS HOLIDAY CHEER, GOOD HEALTH AND HAPPINESS.

BELLS.... IN EUROPE IT WAS BELIEVED THAT THE DEVIL DIED WHEN CHRIST WAS BORN, SO FOR AN HOUR BEFORE MIDNIGHT ON CHRISTMAS EVE BELLS WOULD TOLL THE DEVIL'S DEATH KNEEL. AT MIDNIGHT IT CHANGED TO A JOYFUL PEAL, THE BELLS RINGING OUT A "JOYFUL, MERRY CHRISTMAS."

AND SO THE CHRISTMAS CARDS WE SEND ARE MORE THAN GREETINGS -- THEY ARE AN EXPRESSION OF FRIENDSHIP, A BLESSING, A WISH THAT OTHERS MAY SHARE WITH US THE HAPPINESS OF THE YULETIDE. THEY ARE OUR WAY OF PERPETUATING THE SPIRIT WHICH CHRISTMAS REPRESENTS.

JUVENILE JAIL BREAKERS ARE BACK IN PRISON

Ronald Becker, confessed Jefferson High school thief who fled prison authorities in a daring jail break last week, is back in his cell at the county jail today.

His two companions, Phillip Moskowitz and Harold Mueller, also have been returned to the jail. They were picked up at Santa Anita race track in Arcadia Thursday, the same day that Becker surrendered to Daly City police.

The story Becker told police of the three boys' escape placed responsibility for the act on Moskowitz. He said Moskowitz attempted to cut the cell bar with a razor blade, but was unsuccessful. On Friday, when they were in the shower room, Moskowitz stole a saw from the tool kit of a carpenter working in the jail.

Becker said the boys took turns hacking through the bar, finally gaining exit on Sunday. After their escape, he said, they went to the Redwood City juvenile home to try to release the girl who had been picked up with Moskowitz. They gave up the feat because it appeared too difficult, not knowing that the girl already had been sent home to New York.

After burglarizing McKinley school at Redwood City, Becker said, the trio walked to Bay Meadows where they spent the night. The next two nights they spent in San Francisco, once in the basement of a Nob Hill hotel. During the day they went to shows and looked for a car to steal.

Wednesday morning, Becker said, they told him to go to a show and meet them afterward -- but they never showed up. He then broke into two more schools, getting $11, and came to Daly City. He broke into Jefferson High school for the second time, entering again through the cafeteria door and taking only food. After wandering around town until he was tired, he surrendered to Officer George Savage at the Daly City police station.

Capt. Paul Green Expected Home In March Or April

Capt. Paul Green, former mayor of Daly City now confined to Fitzsimmons General Hospital (U. S. Army) at Denver, Colorado, will be away from home again this Christmas time.

In a letter to Harold Bradshaw, publisher of the Daly City Record, Green sent remembrances to his friends in this community.

Denver, Colorado
December 17, 1947

Dear Brad,
Although it's hard to realize, here I go about to spend another Christmas away from home. This makes my seventh Yuletide in the Army, which is too many for a guy who marched away in 1941 singing, "Goodbye, dear, I'll be back in a year."

However, all I can do is to make the best of it, and hope again that I'll be home for the next one. I should be home in March or April, according to the doctors.

Christmas in Denver will be a white one -- the Rockies have been wreathed in snow for a couple of months now, and I must admit there is something about a snowy December which adds reality to the holiday season.

So here's wishing you and the Record staff, and all my old friends in Daly City, the very merriest Christmas, from one who can't not be there in person but is with you in spirit.

Sincerely,
PAUL GREEN

A case against Andrea De Negri, 50, of Daly City, was continued to December 23 in Superior Court last week.

De Negri, charged with indecent exposure before a young girl at Spruce and Miller avenues, South San Francisco, December 12, is represented by Richard J. Dolwig, South San Francisco attorney. The defendant is free on $500 bail.

Bank of America Starts New Year With Face-Lift

Modern, up-to-date developments in design, as well as the ultimate in efficiency and convenience are apparent in the newly renovated and re-decorated Bank of America, corner of Mission street and San Jose avenue, in Daly City.

Carpenters and upholsterers put their finishing touches on the building last week -- at the close of several months of re-vamping and face-lifting.

For its ever growing clientele, the bank has been enlarged to provide 11 windows -- three in the note and exchange department, and eight for paying and receiving. The bank's three officials are quartered in a spacious front office, railed off from the lobby and the business floor.

A comfortable directors' conference room, upholstered in leather, adjoins the new safe deposit vault. Furniture in the attractively decorated ladies' rest room also is leather-upholstered.

Downstairs, in the basement which has been expanded to more than double its previous size, more than adequate space has been provided for files and supplies -- to insure a greater degree of efficiency.

A luxurious, modern lunchroom, where employees may prepare their own dishes, also is located in the basement. Furniture here is leatherette, for cleanliness and practicality.

Lighting and ventilation in the renovated structure are perhaps the most modern of its features. Five separate wiring systems are used on the first floor, where indirect fluorescent lighting provides the closest similarity to daylight throughout banking hours.

Perforated ceilings have been installed to insure an even temperature in air conditioning. Simply styled registers, designed for cleanliness, cover the hot-cold air shafts.

New safe deposit boxes will be installed in the vault in the very near future, according to Fritz Erickson, manager.

The Daly City bank, with all its new conveniences, now rates with the best-equipped branches in the entire Bank of America.

Five Million Dollar Breakwater Prop. Approved By Board

Proposed construction of a breakwater at Pillar Point, which would cost the United States government $4,512,000 and an additional $412,000 in non-federal funds, was approved last week by the San Mateo County Board of Supervisors.

The board went on record in favor of recommending that the Board of Engineers for Rivers and Harbors at Washington, D. C., approve the proposed construction.

The breakwaters, each 4,400 feet long and 100 feet wide, would provide a protective harbor for commercial and light-raft pleasure vessels.

The board also reappointed A. J. Gaggero of Daly City and Al H. Randall, chairman, to the county civil service commission. Their terms were to expire January 12.

Supervisors turned down a request by Dr. Charles C. Gans, health officer, for compensatory time off for time worked at Community Hospital earlier this year in relief of the superintendent.

Civic Club Women Prepare To Serve At Theatre Party

Members of the Women's Civic Club assembled last Thursday at the home of Mrs. Marie Pool to make final arrangements for their party in the gala Christmas theatre party December 22.

Mrs. Ann Eason presided, and appointed women to distribute candy to the children at the affair. Christmas gifts were exchanged by members after the business session.

The club's next meeting is slated for January 29 at Mrs. Maizie Boyle's home, 131 Winchester street.

SIX INJURED LAST WEEK IN AUTO ACCIDENTS

Six people were injured--two seriously--in two automobile accidents last week in Daly City.

Patsy Wise, age three years, nine months is under observation at Junipero Serra Hospital today to determine if she was injured internally in an auto-pedestrian accident Saturday at the intersection of Hillcrest boulevard and Mission street.

Patsy was hit as she crossed Mission street with her father, Bruce L. Wise, 6276 Mission. The driver, Robert Arnold Statton, 83 San Diego avenue, took the child to the hospital.

Philip Alan Bolger, 401 Bellevue avenue, and William Orvil Mahoney, 2916 Vincente street, San Francisco, sustained serious injuries early Saturday morning in a collision at Mission and School streets.

According to Junipero Serra Hospital attendants, Bolger suffered chest injuries as well as lacerations and abrasions about the knees and arms. His condition was termed "good."

Mahoney, driver of the second car, sustained concussion and lacerations on his head and arms. His condition also was reported "good."

Other injured persons were Phyllis Bolger of the Bellevue address, and Jack Hickey, 59 Wilson street, both passengers in the Bolger car; and Barbara Anna O'Brien, 70 Mission Circle, passenger in the Mahoney vehicle. All were treated for minor injuries at Junipero Serra Hospital.

Recreation Dept.'s Suggestions For Children's Toys

Having published in the previous edition an account of Mrs. Marion McDowell's suggestions for pre-school children's toys, the Record will print here Mrs. McDowell's views on older children's playthings, as released by the National Recreation Association:

"On entering school, the child gains in self-reliance and also in ability to share interests and take part in games with other children. His health and muscular development, as well as his previous experience in play with other children, will affect his good times on the playground. Well-chosen play materials still aid development. Individual interests are more marked from eight to 12.

For physical development, balls, bats, jump ropes, scooters, hoops, darts, garden tools, fishing equipment, kites, boxing gloves, punching bags, ping-pong, archery sets, badminton, tennis rackets, row boats.

For creative development, tools and bench, construction sets, chemistry sets, modeling materials, loom and weaving materials, sewing sets, knitting materials, basket and bead weaving materials, wood carving and turning equipment, printing press, typewriter, materials for puppets, costumes, scenery.

For social development, cooking utensils, magic lantern, magic sets; and later a camera, projector for slides or motion pictures, band instruments, checkers, parchesi, anagrams, card games, phonograph, radio.

These lists are merely suggestive of the myriad articles which may be chosen. A new possession should not duplicate, but should either supplement or add a new interest.

In addition to toys, music should also be considered. Music for young children should be strong in rhythm and simple in melody and harmony. It should be part of their everyday experiences. Besides a hearing music, they should be encouraged to express themselves in their own songs and free rhythms, naturally and happily. Formal learning should not be hurried.

Records cannot be arranged by age because interest and ability differ in children. Provide the finest records and the best machine you can afford, and remember that poor needles damage records.

Numerous record selections are offered by retailers in all vicinities.

A Little Girl's Christmas Message

(Editor's Note) You may sing the praises of a poet who can make his copy rhyme, and whose lines jog with a steady rhyme; but the first requisite for a true poet is imagination and the ability to express it in words. Jean Chamberlain, a sixth-grade student at Our Lady of Perpetual Help school, has composed this work--which we predict is the beginning of an outstanding collection. It is entitled "Christmas Offerings."

Listen to the church bells ringing, Listen to the choir singing; Listen to the praises of the Lord, Sung once by the Holy Horder; Sung now by earthly voices clear, Sung now to Parents, Oh, so dear.

Listen to the bells that tell, The story of the first Noel; Of Shepherds bearing offerings, Humbler than those of the Kings; But given with the same love, Love for the Savior from above.

Offerings of Lamb and Sheep, Furnish a memory to keep, Although the offerings of Kings, Were more elaborate than this, Incense, Holy Myrrh and Gold, All worth riches quite untold.

You too can give a true offering, Greater than that of any King, Give Him your most fervent Love, Send it to the land above, Wrapped in Prayer and Masses too, That can be His gift from you.

Catholic Churches Offer Mass On Christmas Day

The two Catholic churches in Daly City and Colma will offer mass for its congregation on Christmas day. This schedule of confession and mass has been released by the churches:

Our Lady of Perpetual Help, Daly City:

Confession, December 24, 10-11 a. m.; 3-6 p. m. and 7:30-9 p. m. Masses at 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11 a. m. and 12:15 p. m. High mass at 9 a. m. sung by the children's choir, followed by benediction.

Holy Angels church, Colma:

Confession, December 24, 3-5:30 and 7-9 p. m. Masses at 6, 7, 8:30, 9:30, 10:30 a. m. and 12:15 p. m. Benediction after 10:30 mass.

Protestant churches in the vicinity offered Christmas services last Sunday, and will not have services on Christmas day.

The Rev. Gilbert C. H. Bellshaw, pastor of the Grace Baptist church, will be speaker at the 10:30 a. m. services in the First Baptist church in San Francisco.

Three Pay Fines In Municipal Court At Friday Session

One man pleaded guilty to a charge of being drunk in and about an auto; two persons paid fines for traffic violations, and a case of hit-and-run driving was dismissed last Friday in Municipal court.

Walter J. Anderson, charged with being in a state of intoxication while sitting in his car on Junipero Serra boulevard last week, was penalized to the tune of $100.

John Martin was fined $10 for allegedly making an improper turn and causing an accident at Mission and Vale streets. Complaint against Martin was signed by Frederick Howard, driver of the other vehicle involved.

Mrs. Frieda Williams paid a fine of $10 for improper parking. Officer Henry Sundermann signed the complaint.

After half an hour's deliberation, a charge of hit-and-run driving against Herman Walther was dismissed by Judge William J. Sweeney on the grounds of insufficient evidence.

We found out today what is meant by the spirit of Christmas.

Right here in our town, in a tiny workshop behind a house on Miriam street, we discovered a model of Santa Claus' North Pole toy factory.

This shop -- and the purpose it serves -- seemed to typify for us the full essence of the Christmas spirit.

The shop was filled to overflowing with wagons, dolls, toy planes and cars -- toys that would burst a child's heart with excitement. Half-completed scooters and doll buggies littered the floor. Wet paint glistened on toy trucks nearly ready for play.

It wasn't the multitude of playthings, however, that brought a lump to our throat; that caused an indescribable feeling of -- well, just Christmas -- to well up within us.

It was the very idea that here, in a world where the year's end brings a settling of debts; a repaying of favors -- a man no less burdened by personal hardships than the rest of us can share what happiness he has with the less fortunate.

A few years ago Jay Johnson, the Miriam street cabinetmaker and rabbit farmer, hadn't long to live. Jay, a steel worker at the time, had fallen while on a construction job and suffered serious injury -- particularly to his nervous system.

He was forced to quit his trade and retire to the haven of his home, if he was to perpetuate the remaining months of his life. To quiet his nerves, Jay gave up floor-walking in favor of building things. He soon became proficient at carpentry work, free lancing in his home workshop.

Also, a few years ago, another near tragedy occurred in the Johnson family. Jay's step-daughter, Darlene, came very close to death from a serious heart ailment. Her recovery was brought about by students at the local high school, who rallied to her aid with blood donations which ultimately saved her life.

Jay was convinced, then, that children were the best people on earth.

Several months ago -- about June of this year -- Jay got the chance to pay, in small part, he thought, for the priceless gift bestowed upon his family by those students. A friend of his, a junk dealer who lived nearby, told him of the numerous toys contained in the salvage he gathered each day. "I'm handy at fixing things," Jay thought. "And those toys would be cherished by children of underprivileged families in our community."

That was the beginning of Jay Johnson's Christmas project. Ernest Herbstritt, the junk man, brought discarded toys of every description and every condition to the small workshop at the back of Johnson's house. Jay looked them over, sorted them, and started renovating them in readiness for Christmas.

Jay, his wife Nell, and their daughter Darlene worked together on many of the toys. The women's assistance with sewing and delicate painting jobs was invaluable when it came to mending and dressing dolls, and stuffing and clothing toys. Ernest and his wife joined them on many evenings as they worked in the Johnsons' toy-cluttered apartment.

For the past two months now, Jay has put nearly 20 hours each day into the project -- cutting down more and more on rest as Christmas draws near. His collection numbers more than 500 playthings now -- from a two-inch-long station wagon to a huge, rolling airplane.

Jay found after he started that there was even more he could do to make some children's holidays happier. For the more destitute families he has found, there will be Christmas dinners and warm clothing.

Several of his friends have contributed funds for the purchase of shoes. Last week, the boiler room workers on a Guam-bound steamer sent a check for their contribution.

The gifts will be distributed, Jay said, quietly and without fanfare. "A publicized offering is truly a worthless thing to the recipient."

Jay Johnson, his limitless generosity and his unbounded respect for fellow humans, has proved to us, the erstwhile "realist," that there is, after all, a Santa Claus.

Truck Driver Hurt In Tumble Down Steep Embankment

Melvin P. Cavallero, 47 Collins street, San Francisco, was treated at Junipero Serra Hospital last week for injuries sustained when his vehicle crashed down a 20-foot embankment on Mission street near Westlake.

Cavallero suffered cuts about the head when his two-ton truck smashed into the sidewalk, over it and down the embankment. The driver later told police he had lost control of the truck when he swerved to miss a safety zone. The truck, a fruit and vegetable loader owned by George L. Burger, 330 Drumm street, San Francisco, landed in a vacant lot.

MARKED INCREASE IN BUILDING PERMIT CHARGES

A marked increase in building permit charges since the new evaluation practice went into effect December 10 is evidenced by the valuation appraisals issued by Building Inspector Arthur J. Bodien this month.

Two stores, with five-room apartment buildings above each, were appraised at $8,100 each by Bodien. The buildings will be erected by Carl F. Huber, 62 Evergreen avenue, on Lot 3, Block 16 of the Vista Grande tract No. 2.

A five-room single family dwelling to be constructed on Lot 24, Block 22 in the Union Park 700.

Record Christmas Edition Early; Holiday Closing

The Daly City Record joins all other local establishments in observance of the Christmas holiday.

Hence--the Christmas edition of the Record is on the streets three days early this week.

Record employees, who like others in this vicinity will enjoy a Christmas vacation, take this opportunity to wish all their readers a Merry, Merry Christmas!

'48 — WE HOPE IT'S GREAT!

We don't imagine there will be too many sighs of regret at the passing of 1947. It was a year of accomplishment, but its trials and tribulations were formidable, too, and many will carry over into the New Year. What of 1948?

Economists predict that agriculture and industry will reach the highest production goals in the history of America. That means full employment, and it should also mean lower prices as shelves fill with goods that plentiful dollars now pursue in vain.

Religious leaders predict a re-awakening to the spiritual values in daily living, and a re-birth of feeling for the Golden Rule. That could mean better understanding among Nations as well as individuals, and peaceful settlement of disputes that now darken international horizons.

Political observers predict revitalized public interest in the way Government is run, and in the caliber of the men who seek to run it. That means more ballots, and a stronger democracy.

We can't qualify as experts in the field of prognostication, but we humbly predict that the old car won't hold together much longer, that the Mrs. will want a fur coat next winter, that Junior will ask for an increase in his weekly allowance, and that unless we get more newsprint you won't get more news.

And, just to be different, we won't offer a resolution for the New Year. That's really something you should do for yourself, anyway. But we can—and most sincerely do—wish all our readers the happiest and most prosperous of New Years. Farewell, '47; enter, '48!

PARABLE OF THE 69-CENT DOLLAR

Once upon a time a wife who guarded her husband's earnings carefully, put a dollar in her purse and went shopping. On the way to the store she met a tax collector who took 11 cents of the dollar away from her as a personal tax, leaving 89 cents. In the store, she pointed to an article and said "give me 69 cents' worth." The clerk weighed out her purchase and handed it to her. She gave him 69 cents. "Sorry, madam," he said, "that will cost you 89 cents."

The housewife protested. "I only asked for 69 cents worth," she said. "I know you did," the clerk replied, "and that's all I gave you. But the other 20 cents is for hidden and direct taxes."

So the housewife dutifully handed over all the money remaining from the dollar her husband had earned, and went back home with the 69 cents worth that it had bought.

Fanciful? Not at all! This parable appears as a compelling illustration of a fact driven home in a pamphlet just issued by the Foundation for Economic Education of New York — that the average American handed over 31 cents of every dollar of 1946 income to Federal, State and local government as direct or hidden taxes!

Advance Washington reports indicate that a $40,000,000,000 budget will be sought for Federal expenditures alone next year.

No doubt the figure will be slashed; and no question, either, that America's commitments abroad will be responsible for a sizable chunk of the multi-billion dollar cost of government. But there's still too much of the prodigal attitude on the part of public officials toward the spending of public funds, and until public opinion compels them to trim expenditures, the Parable of the 69-Cent Dollar will contain more truth than poetry.

BATTLE FOR EUROPE

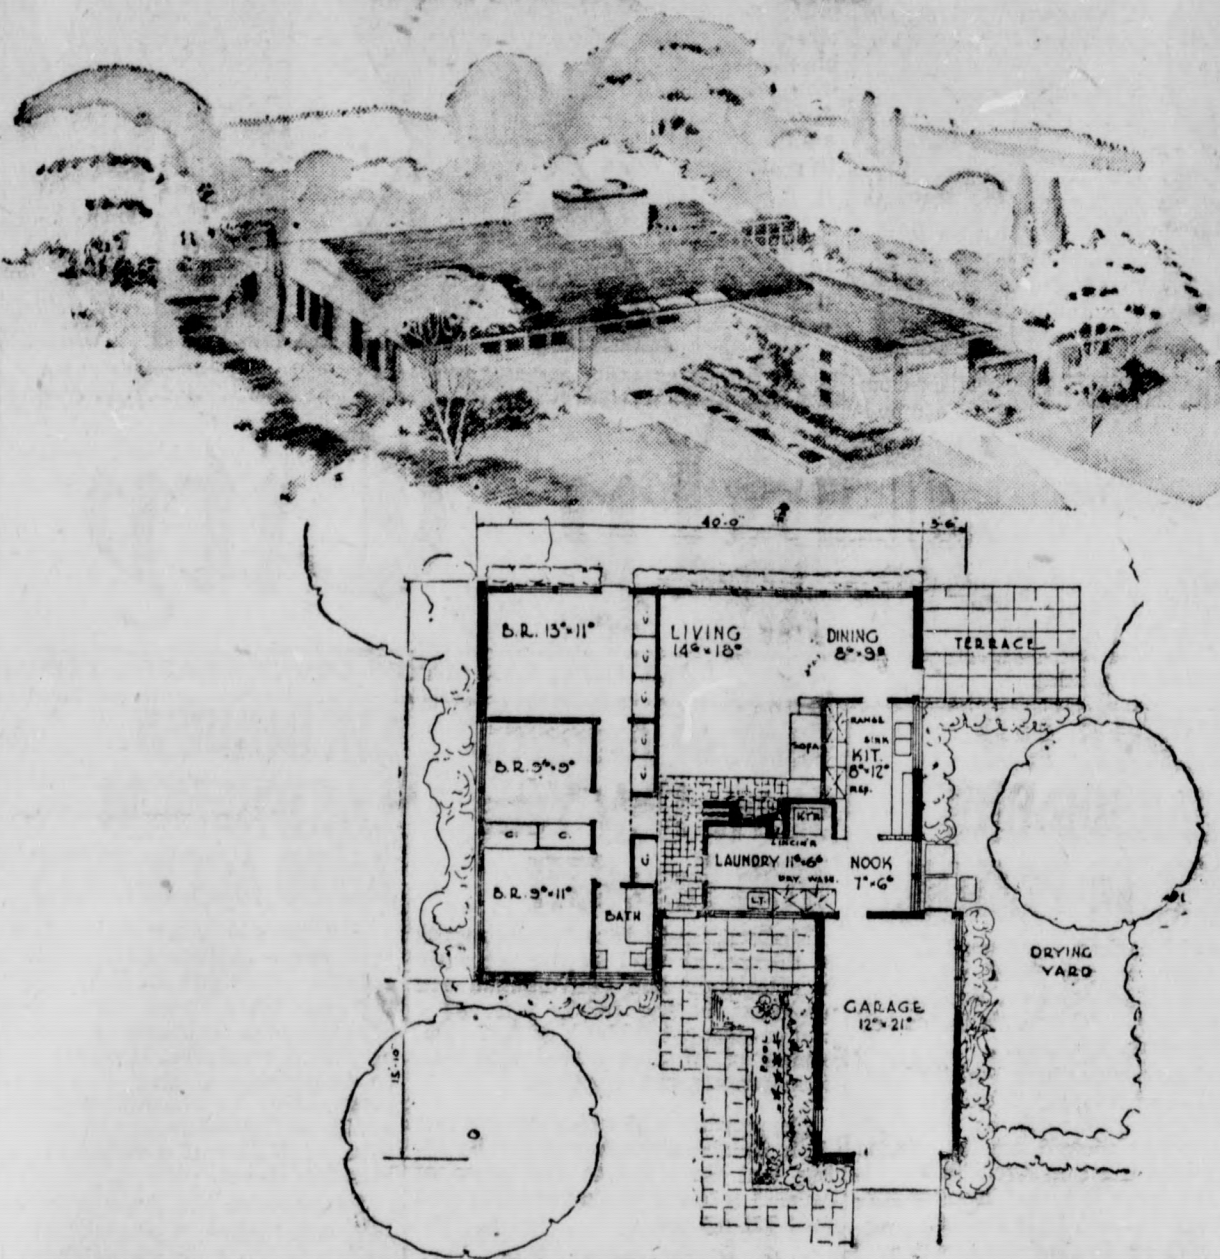

Little more than three years since the military battle for Europe was joined by invasion of the Continent, a new D-Day has arrived. This one is political and economic. Events of the past week have cast the die of all-out struggle between the East and the West to determine whether Communism or free government shall prevail.

The events form a clear pattern: in London, the conference of Foreign Ministers broke up after Russia's Molotov rejected proposals of the United States, Britain and France for a German and Austrian settlement; in Moscow, the Kremlin girded Russian economy for the struggle by re-valuating the ruble; in Washington, President Truman signed the interim aid plan for Europe — forerunner of the long-term Marshall plan; in Paris, the negative French position toward consolidation of her German occupation zone with the American and British zones appeared to be headed for complete revision.

What is the portent of these developments for the future? No oracle can state with finality exactly what the consequences will be, but this much appears certain:

The hands of the Allies are now freed in Western Germany, and plans for unification of that territory to bring its tremendous industrial potential into the fight to restore the economy of European Nations can now be pressed.

Modern Detail Home

Emphasis has been placed on modern detail combined with a low-pitched overhanging main roof in this design. The exterior walls of colorful ledge rock stone and plywood panels blend into the landscaping and become a natural part of the setting. The large living-dining area has been arranged for functional furniture groupings. Note the convenience of the combined kitchen-nook-laundry. The hobby garage is ideal for any family. The house comprises 1160 square feet, excluding garage.

Dwelling shown above is a photograph of a scale model of a "cut-out" home which can be obtained from House Beautiful Magazine for $2.00. The model is easily assembled, and gives the prospective home builder an actual model of the home he plans to build, complete with "cut-out" furniture.

By studying the scale model, the prospective builder is enabled to determine what changes he deems necessary before the home is actually built, thereby saving needless expense.

Overestimate Coins

Dr. Jerome S. Bruner of Harvard university finds that children see coins bigger than they are. His subjects were 10-year-olds who had to adjust a variable circle to the sizes of different coins placed near it. The bigger the coin the more the children overestimated its size. Poor children saw the coins bigger than the rich and both groups overestimated the sizes. When disks were used instead of coins, only small random and constant errors were made. When no coins were used and the children worked from memory, the sizes were again overestimated, with the rich children making the circles markedly larger. Poorer children overestimated the size more when real coins were used.

Influenced Students

The Institute of Student Opinion Poll found that among 101,500 high school students 33 per cent answered "The family" when asked about the chief influence on youth's thinking. Newspapers and magazines rated second with 17 per cent; close friends — "the gang" — were third; and radio ranked fourth. Other influences, in their respective order, were: community or student opinion; teachers; the church; movies; and schoolbooks. Teachers received the low vote of 5 per cent.

Paint on Automobiles

Paint used on a typical 1942 model passenger automobile with accessories has been estimated at $1.40 gross pounds and 26.38 net pounds, says Automobile Facts and Figures. The net represents the paint that adheres to and remains on the automobile after spraying.

Preparing Water Fowl

In cooking wild water fowl a little special attention will help insure a much more tasty dish. In preparing a bird for cooking it is well to remember that an older bird has less tender meat and is best cooked with moist heat with only a moderate amount of seasoning, while tender meat is cooked with dry heat. Seasonings used include onions, tomatoes, garlic, lemon, marjoram, thyme, cloves or chili powder.

Need Phosphorus

Lacking phosphorus enough in their feed, cattle may develop nutritional diseases, the most common of which is known as "creeps." For a remedy, scientists recommend phosphorus compounds dissolved in the drinking water or mixed with feed. Bonemeal fed in a self-feeder is a convenient way to supply phosphorus. For prevention there is a third and indirect method of improving the phosphorus supply by fertilizing ranges and pastures with a superphosphate.

Good Combing

Give your hair a thorough brushing by getting the brush under it and lifting it. A clean brush does a clean job, so always wash it after using. Do this by holding it directly under the warm water faucet, then create a strong spray against the brush by pressing a finger to part of the mouth of the faucet. If possible, dry brush in sunlight.

Cauterize Tick Bite

When a tick is found feeding on a human, remove it with tweezers or forceps or wear rubber gloves if necessary to remove it with the fingers. Cauterize the bite with a solution of carbolic acid or of silver nitrate, then scrub the hands thoroughly. If, following exposure to ticks, Rocky Mountain spotted fever is even remotely suspected, consult a doctor immediately. Prompt hospitalization and treatment are essential for best chances of recovery.

Potato Leftovers

Potato leftovers lend themselves to tasty dishes as every thrifty housewife knows. Leftover mashed potatoes make potato cakes. Boiled leftovers make creamed potatoes or hashbrowns potatoes. The latter goes very well with breakfast eggs, incidentally.

Protective Coatings

Phenolic resins serve as interior protective coatings in metal five-gallon containers and drums to protect the metal from attack by the contents of the package. Many kinds of chemicals may be shipped in phenolic-lined containers. Frequently it is more important to keep the chemical free from contamination with iron than it is to keep the iron from being attacked by the chemical. These kit and drum linings are, when properly cured, resistant to organic solvents.

Great Plague of 1665

The bubonic plague of 1665 began in London's suburb of St. Giles-in-the-Fields. Comparatively few deaths occurred in the city, the greatest devastation occurring in the outskirts, such as Stepney, Shoreditch, Clerkenwell, Cripple-gate, St. Giles' and Westminster quarters wherein the poor were densely crowded. Of the 97,306 deaths recorded in that year, 68,596 were attributed to the plague.

Oldest Farm Paper

The American Farmer magazine, believed to be the first agricultural periodical published in the U. S., was started at Baltimore, Md., in 1819.

Riding in a Riksha

In Shanghai, a riksha costs between $17 and $40; those rented to the public cost about $20, and on such a small tax is paid to the municipality. Some privately owned rikshas have been equipped with American balloon tires, shining chrome wheel spokes, and lacquered bodies and have had artistic coats of arms painted on their sides. Before the war an American could ride in a public riksha for a week on what it would cost him in carfare to ride a day in the United States.

Mustard Plants

The mustards, members of the Brassica family, are cousins of the cabbages, cauliflowers, turnips, radishes, brussels sprouts. Mustard seeds vary in color from pale yellow to black. The black belongs to a wild variety, common as a weed in many parts of the country. Yellow, oriental and brown are the cultivated types.

Coffee-Making

If a few simple rules are applied to coffee-making, the brew should be consistently delicious. One of these rules is to measure accurately the quantities of water and coffee used. Most people prefer coffee that is somewhere between medium and strong. To acquire these results, 1½ to 2 level tablespoons of coffee should be used for every standard measuring cup of water.

Timber Facts

Can our forests be made to supply all our timber requirements? Expert foresters have stated that if proper cutting and related forest practices are applied, America's urgent timber needs can be met without further impairing the productivity of our forest lands.

Don't Crowd Beets

At the first thinning of beets, they may be left about 1½ inches apart, then alternate plants may be removed for greens before they crowd each other in the rows. Best growing space is about 3 inches apart. They should be harvested when they are about 2 inches in diameter.

Mortgage Laws

A survey showed that state mortgage laws before the war varied greatly. In Virginia, Texas or Georgia it took only a few days to foreclose. In Illinois, however, foreclosure proceedings averaged over 18 months, and in Alabama more than two years.

Coin 1,300 Years Old

A rare gold coin with the inscription PADA takes its place as the earliest gold issue bearing the name of an English king. Penda ruled Mercia from 655 to 657 A. D. and was the first of his line to adopt Christianity.

Rats Carry Disease

Rats are responsible for a variety of losses to the poultry industry, not the least of these being disease. One experiment shows that rats carry coccidiosis and are capable of spreading it to chickens. About the same story goes for infectious bronchitis and fowl tuberculosis. Known to travel as far as five miles a week, rats can pick up and spread disease over a pretty wide area.

Soybean Center

The United States now produces more soybeans than Manchuria, where they have been grown for centuries as the Chinese "staff of life."

American Tourists

The great importance of American tourist trade to other countries long has been recognized. American passenger ships annually have carried more than 300,000 passengers for the last 20 years. In 1929, American-flag vessels carried 625,000 American and foreign travelers.

Remove Black Marks

To get rid of black-rubber heel marks on kitchen linoleum, rub them with a cloth that has been moistened with a bit of liquid wax, turpentine, or cleaning fluid. Apply it sparingly, but rub vigorously.

Greens Nutrition

Eating greens such as mustard and turnip greens and collards will help build up a supply of vitamin A. These greens are also good sources of vitamin C, iron and calcium.

DDT Smoke Battles Insects
War-designed to provide smoke screens for troops, smoke generators have been adapted by the army chemical corps for protecting orchards and row crops against frost and insects. Fourteen department of agriculture stations across the country now are testing DDT mixed with smoke to exterminate insect pests on grain, tobacco, fruit and vegetable crops. Regular army volunteers selecting the chemical corps for their service are trained to handle equipment useful in both war and peace.

Home Fatalities
Eighteen per cent of all home fatalities are caused by burns. And for every fatality, many more persons are permanently disabled or scarred.

Year after year we have been wishing our friends a Merry Christmas each year hoping to make our message a little warmer, a little more personal.

It is with some such thought as this that we now add this "Merry Christmas" to the many that have gone before, with the hope that it will find you abundantly blessed with everything that the magic wand of Christmas can bestow.

Helps Oiling
Here is a good idea for oiling places that are hard to get at. Solder a fine steel wire to the spout of oil cans. The wire prevents the spout from clogging when oiling out-of-the-way spots, cleans the dirt out of the holes, and guides the oil to the place where you want it.

Careless Workers
A special study made by the National Safety Council of lost-time accident cases involving hand trucks revealed that in nine out of ten cases the injured person was working unsafely, and that in six out of ten cases unsafe conditions contributed to causing the accident.

Pastures Infectious
Pastures and feed lots are primary sources of worm infestation in animals.

Dairymen's Favorite
Orchard grass combined with ladino clover as a pasture crop is rapidly becoming a dairymen's favorite. The two plants make an ideal pasture and soil conservation team. Orchard grass is a perennial bunchgrass having rather rapid recovery after grazing and responds in growth and yield to high levels of nitrogen usually found under ladino clover growth.

Beverage BM
In 1945 the American people spent an all-time record-high of $7,800,000,000 for intoxicating beverages, says a report of the treasury department. That is equivalent to an average of more than $200, or about $4 a week, for every man between 20 and 60 years of age in our entire population.

Detachable Jewel
Part of the chain of the Order of St. Andrew, one of the Russian crown jewels, contains 20 detachable pieces of different design, each of which may be used as a separate ornament.

Macaroni Starchy
As macaroni is a starchy food, it should not be served with potatoes, rice, noodles or Mommy, as they also contain large amounts of starch.

Mountain Mystery
The mystery of the roars emanating from old Rumbling Bald (mountain) at Lake Lure, N. C., has been explained by scientists who say they are caused by boulders falling from the top of caves deep in the mountain.

Protect Metal
Because of their imperviousness to water and atmospheric moisture, phenolic resin coatings excel as primers on structural steel and are often used, pigmented with red lead, blue lead, and other corrosion-inhibiting pigments, for painting of underwater structures, such as locks and dams, or for the interior protection of water tanks.

Frosting Metal
In the new crystallization of "frosting" method of casting metal, the inside walls of the mold are cooled by circulating water, and the mold is immersed in molten metal and left until the outside walls are covered or frosted with an even layer of the desired thickness.

When frozen food has been thawed
it should not be refrozen, food utili-

for spoilage organisms to flourish.

Experience Counts
In law, experience and contacts are of primary importance; physical fitness secondary. In consequence, the peak income is reached between the 20th and 40th year of practice.

Sanitary Linings
Non-oil-reactive, alcohol-soluble thermosetting resins find wide usage in the production of sanitary linings for food and beverage containers. Applied by roller coating on flat sheets of tinplate, the films are cured at suitable time-temperature cycles, after which the tin cans are fabricated. The coatings withstand not only the forming and crimping operations of can manufacture, but also the rigors of steam pressure cooking, sterilization.

Farmers Court Death
In 1945, there were more accidental deaths of workers in agriculture than in any other industry. However, there were more deaths of farm residents from home accidents than from any other type of accident. On the farm, there were more deaths of farm residents in motor vehicle accidents than from all other types of accidents.

Kuins Farm Buildings
Each year, 40,000 American farm buildings are ruined while every day 10 Americans die as a result of farm fires.

RIGHT, son! A Speed Queen sure will get those badly soiled clothes of yours clean. Speed Queen's Thermo Bowl-Shaped Tub has a high-speed water action which removes dirt like magic. Mom will have a much more liberal attitude about your having fun outdoors if she owns a Speed Queen. Your note to Santa suggesting a Speed Queen washer is certainly a wonderful idea!

The Story of the Nativity

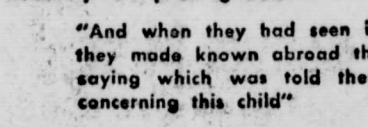

The simple words with which St. Luke tells the story of the first Christmas appropriately provide the theme of the Christmas cards which Americans are sending to friends and relatives this year. These Christmas cards, with their reverent, inspiring scenes and sentiments, reflect the true spiritual meaning of the Christmas season.

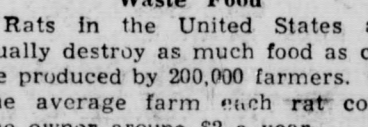

'And Joseph also went up from Galilee, out of the city of Nazareth, into Judea . . . with Mary his espoused wife, being great with child'

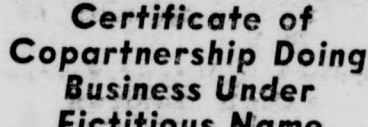

'And she brought forth her first-born son, and wrapped him in swaddling clothes, and laid him in a manger'

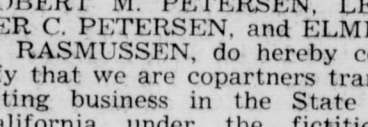

'And there were in the same country shepherds abiding in the field, keeping watch over their flock by night'

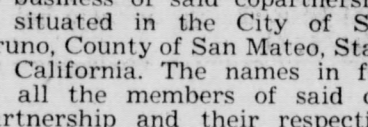

'And suddenly there was with them a multitude of the heavenly host praising God'

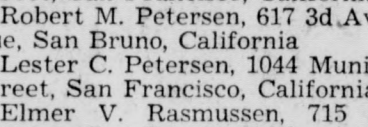

'And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child'

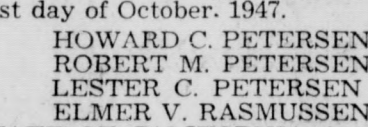

'And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child'

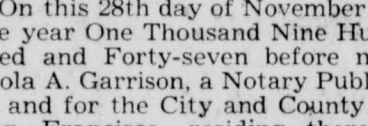

'And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child'

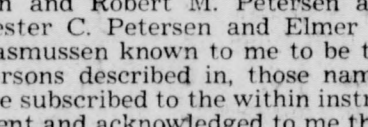

'And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child'

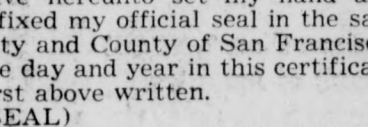

'And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child'

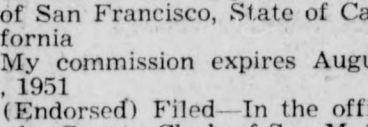

'And when they had seen it, they made known abroad the saying which was told them concerning this child'

Local Trio Faces Burglary Trial In Superior Court

Preliminary hearing on a robbery charge against three local men was heard by C. E. Lowe, Colma police judge last week.

Fred Shaw, 23, and Sherman Arnold, both of San Francisco, and Archibald Bigazzi, 29, Daly City, were held to answer to superior court on a charge of burglarizing Molloy's Tavern on the Old Mission road in Colma last month.

The men were arrested in San Francisco three weeks after the robbery, and turned over to the San Mateo County sheriff's office. They are at liberty on $1000 bail each. Approximately $170 in cash and two slot machines were taken from the tavern early in the morning of November 5.

Prosecuting witnesses at the hearing were Edward Chavell, who resides above the tavern, and Thomas Reynolds, night bartender.

Twenty-two Are Assessed Fines By Judge W. Sweeney

Speeding was the violation committed by a majority of persons fined in traffic court again last week.

Twenty-two speed limit violators paid fines:

Elizabeth Anderson paid a penalty of $2.50; Albert Armitage, $2.50; William Brennan, $5; Anastasio Caligier, $3; James Dempsey, $7.50; Herschel Dillehay, $5; Thomas Dooley, $2.50; Frank Foss, $2.50; Harold Freitas, $6; Serafino Gioni, $5; William Patton, $2.50; Eddie Rogers, $6.50; Louis Ronco Jr., $5; Seymour Silverman, $5; Carl Smith, $2.50; Robert Utter, $2.50; Hugh Walker, $5; Nute Wheeler, $5; Maximilian Buehner, $5; George Danford, $15; John Fleming, $5, and Edward Martin, $2.50.

Violations of the hill-holding ordinance brought $2.50 fines from Fred Carroll, Herman Lorenzo, and Harry Mark.

Louis DeMarchi was fined $2; Blanche Link, $2.50, and Raymond O'Connor, $2.50 for driving through a signal. Robert Bray was charged $5 for speeding through a signal, and Helen Rideout paid $2 for driving through an arterial stop.

Other fines were collected from Donald Rutherford for driving without lights, $2.50; Ralph Blaine, $2.50, and Floyd Britton, driving over double line, $10.

S.F. Elks Lodge Crowds Holidays With Activities

The annual hi-jinks and Yuletide festivities of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks will be held Friday evening in the Elks Club, 456 Post street, according to Arthur De Ayala, chairman of the social committee.

Noted radio, concert and theater personalities are to appear in the brilliant stage show in the lodge hall, DeAyala said.

Preceding the pre-Christmas fete, Exalted Ruler George Baader will deliver an address of greeting. Past exalted rulers and other long-standing members will comprise the reception committee. A buffet supper, served by the social committee in the clubrooms, will follow the show.

The traditional Elks' all-night New Year's Eve celebration and dinner-dance, which has been "sold out" since last week, will attract a gay throng Wednesday evening, December 31. Past Exalted Ruler Henry J. Buddie is general chairman of the affair. No regular meeting will be held January 2, according to Arthur J. Mangin, secretary.

Ladies Night is slated for January at the Elks Club. A large class of candidates will be initiated into the lodge January 9.

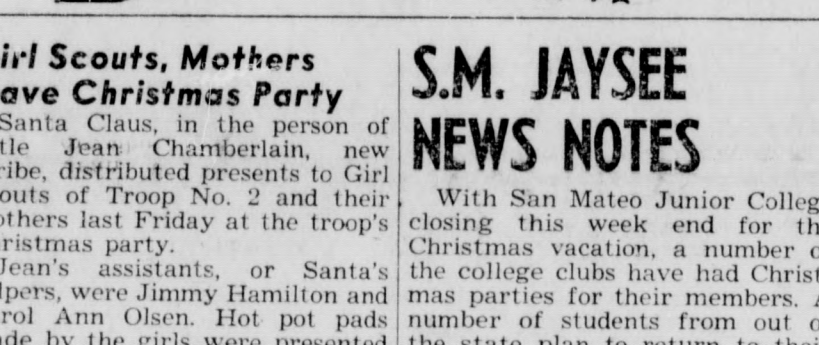

First Aid for Wounds

In giving first aid care in cases of severe wounds which are later to receive medical treatment, do not use soap and water, for, as has been said, this cannot be done under the conditions in which this first aid is usually carried out without introducing germs with the water itself. If the physician later washes the wound, he will do so in the dispensary under aseptic conditions, and this is medical treatment, not first aid. It must not be forgotten that first aid is not the same as medical care, and no matter how well versed one may be in first aid, he should not assume the responsibilities of the physician.

Halley's Comet

Halley's comet has been tracked back to 240 B. C. The appearance of this comet in A. D. 1066 is recorded on the Bayeux tapestry. The comet was named for Edmund Halley, the first astronomer to establish the fact of a comet's periodic return.

Girl Scouts, Mothers Have Christmas Party

Santa Claus, in the person of little Jean Chamberlain, new scribe, distributed presents to Girl Scouts of Troop No. 2 and their mothers last Friday at the troop's Christmas party.

Jean's assistants, or Santa's helpers, were Jimmy Hamilton and Carol Ann Olsen. Hot pot pads made by the girls were presented to the mothers present.

File Returns Early Tax Collector Warns

The rapid increase of population in northern California, coupled with a reduction in personnel of the internal revenue offices, may cause taxpayers of the First California District to wait long hours in line when they file income tax returns next year.

This announcement was made last week by James G. Smyth, collector of internal revenue for the First District.

Only 275 deputy collectors will be available to assist taxpayers next year, the collector said, as contrasted with an approximate 400 in the last collection period.

Smyth warned that for this reason, taxpayers should begin filing returns immediately upon the opening of the filing period, January 1, 1948.

S.M. JAYSEE NEWS NOTES

With San Mateo Junior College closing this week end for the Christmas vacation, a number of the college clubs have had Christmas parties for their members. A number of students from out of the state plan to return to their homes in Oregon, Washington, or to states in the Middle West for the vacation.

The jaysee basketball team has continued its winning ways by taking the opening three games of the season. Its latest win was over the frosh team from the University of San Francisco, 47 to 43.

The yearbook staff with Lynn Lockett as editor has been busy getting pictures taken of the January graduates, the faculty, fall term student leaders and teams, and campus views.

At the present time the college adult center is arranging a heavy schedule of sections for the winter quarter which will open January 5. A number of new sections will be started at that time. Over five thousands adults will have been enrolled in the evening school by the end of the spring term.

OFF THE BLOTTER

Four burglaries or attempted burglaries kept the Daly City police busy last week hunting suspects and jailing culprits.

Earliest of these was an attempted robbery at the home of Eileen Cresci, 188 Bruno street. According to police, the would-be thief or thieves gained entrance through the garage door and ransacked the house—taking nothing.

Another attempted robbery was perpetrated between closing time Saturday and Monday opening at the Daly City post office. Officers said the burglar or burglars apparently had been frightened away after breaking the dial off the safe and bending the safe handle. The unknown parties were unsuccessful. No fingerprints were found.

Mrs. C. V. Houlihan's home at 108 Mateo avenue was burglarized by a thief who apparently broke in through a kitchen window off the front porch. Police said the robber made off with $1.75 in currency, valuable jewelry and a clock.

Awaiting trial at the Redwood City juvenile home this week is a 15-year-old boy charged with stealing a small radio from Ted Hopman's store at No. 1 Wellington avenue. The boy was brought to Daly City police station by Hopman, who apprehended him as he walked away from the store with the radio.

Among the miscellaneous duties of the local police is a watch for vandals who mischievously chopped down a cedar tree Saturday at the Pixon home, 785 Templeton.

Criminal charges were made against Anthony Ferrara, 500-A Templeton avenue. Ferrara was released on $50 bail after arrest on charges of assault and battery. Complaint was signed by his wife, Gudrun Kristini Gormley, will answer to Judge William J. Sweeney in Municipal court Friday on a charge of drunkenness in and about an auto. The woman was found sitting in a car parked laterally in the 200 block on Los Olivos.

Care in Traffic

"There's safety in numbers" is a truism that doesn't apply on California's crowded streets and highways, points out the California State Automobile Association. Heavy traffic requires extra alertness and careful driving, careful walking. "Take It Easy."

Spills Decrease

Counterfeiters cheated the American public out of only $48,000 in 1942, compared with spoils of $771,000 per year between 1933 and 1936, according to the Encyclopedia Britannica. A counterfeit bill often can be detected by comparing it with a genuine bill of the same denomination, paying special attention to the quality of the portrait, which is usually fine in a genuine bill. Counterfeit coins usually feel greasy or slippery.

week to present a Christmas musical—the first public performance of the fall semester.

The presentation took place in the Community hall of the Adult Center, sponsoring organization.

First on the program was the string quartet, including Phoebe Stern, first violin; Ross McKelvie, second violin; Eli Benjamin, viola, and Martin Kaufman, cello, with two musical selections by Bach and Mozart.

The a capella choir, a chorus of 60 voices, sang four Christmas carols.

Elaine Ouchida, soprano, was the evening's soloist. Her performance included two timely selections, "Lullaby," by Brahms, and Adams' "Cantique de Noel."

After another offering of well-known Christmas melodies by the capella voices, the choir and orchestra combined to present "Twas the Night Before Christmas," by Darby and Simeone. The orchestra played under the baton of Elmer H. Young Jr.

News Column For The Veterans

Veterans Administration receives hundreds of applications, letters and other documents daily which must be sent to the "mystery file" because they do not contain sufficient identification.

The failure on the part of veterans, schools, training establishments and others to include the claim number, insurance number or other identification makes it difficult for VA to give prompt attention to the claim involved.

In an effort to identify "mystery letters" VA employees must make a complete search of the master files causing a delay in action on the request.

VA urges every person who contacts VA by letter, or in person, to always use a claim or insurance number. If these numbers are not known, sufficient identification such as service serial number, date of birth, full name and address, service rank and organization and date of discharge should be included.

Each month several thousand checks for federal benefits to California veterans or their dependents are returned to the Treasury Department disbursing office because the person to whom the check was made out has moved and failed to notify the Veterans Administration of the change of address.

Checks cannot be forwarded from one address to another. In order to insure prompt receipt of Treasury Department checks, veterans or their dependents are urged to immediately notify the Veterans Administration of a change of address.

Question: My brother, a U.S. veteran of World War II who resides in Canada, would like to know if he can claim unemployment allowance while living there?

Answer: No, he cannot draw readjustment allowance for unemployment or self-employment while living in Canada. Residence in the United States, its territories or possessions is a definite eligibility requirement for readjustment allowance.

Question: Will you please tell me what kind of insurance is National Service Life Insurance?

Answer: NSLI is mutual insurance. All premium payments go into a trust fund maintained by the Treasury Department and invested in government interest-bearing securities. The interest accrues to the NSLI fund.

Question: Will Veterans Administration guarantee a G.I. loan for an automobile house trailer that I can use during my vacation to house me and my family?

Answer: No. Loans for pleasure purposes cannot be guaranteed or insured by Veterans Administration.

Durham Obsolved Of Conner Murder

Howard Durham, 27, of Reedley, was absolved of complicity in the murder of George W. Conner, Palo Alto, credit man, by Justice of the Peace Edward I. McAuliffe last week.

The murder charge was dismissed after a day-long hearing at which Durham's attorney, Leslie C. Gillen, showed that there was "no proof whatsoever" that Durham had had a part in Conner's death or that he had conspired to rob the man.

Justice McAuliffe ruled that a 20-year-old Polish war bride, should stand trial alone on the murder charge.

Durham was released from the county jail on $5,000 bond after the hearing. Mrs. Curtin, who will stand trial with Durham on a robbery count February 3, is held without bail on the murder charge.

The cumulous or fleecy cloud has a flat base, the upper parts being domeshaped.

Oil Changes

To prevent costly wear, automobile transmission and differential oil changes should be made at regular intervals, according to the California State Automobile Association. The safest procedure is to consult and follow the recommendations in the manual furnished by the manufacturer of your car.

Hard Starting

If an automobile motor is in good condition and the battery is fully charged, the motor should start with the first turn of the starter, says the California State Automobile Association. Difficult starting sometimes results if any of the fuel or ignition units involved in starting are out of order.
